

Air 1 serves as a positive alternative music for my children and myself. Our community would suffer without the positive music and our ability to spread the word about Jesus Christ would be impacted greatly. The service provided is in the public interest because of the positive alternative we have for our families to weed out the garbage that is played on most traditional radio stations.